

“Member’s Privileges”

(1) Advocacy	MRA will be advocate and consultant concerning research related procedures and issues to ministry concerned. MRA will try the best to create the strong relationship with the government institutions.
(2) Influence	MRA will be the place where the united attitude of research agencies in Myanmar is revealed. Form here, we will strive to offer one, strong voice.
(3) Education	MRA will offer training, invite professionals to deliver seminars, and has idea to arrange study aboard trips to learn how research agencies in other countries function.
(4) Industry Information	MRA will distribute to its members information on research industry, latest information from government, business indexes, analysis upon changes of customers and research agencies, and other related socio-economic indicators.
(5) Networking	The MRA will hold events and online discussion (through viber group) where members can meet up and share their opinions upon research industry.
(6) Cost Savings	MRA will have “Members Only” offers. Members will receive special discounts for workshops and books published by MRA.
(7) Media Relations	MRA will maintain and development relations with media. The organization will offer precise and correct information on the business research industry and work to enhance the MRA’s image with the media.
(8) Innovation	MRA will host events directed towards its member’s needs. The MRA welcomes creative ideas and stands ready to make them reality.